

ENTRY FORM

PROPERTY FEATURE JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR

This category recognises excellence in long-form property journalism that delivers depth, balance, and context. Entries must be well-researched, draw on multiple sources, and offer clear, engaging journalism. Submissions based on a single source will not be accepted. Judges will look for originality, clarity, and the ability to explain complex property issues in an accessible way. Has he/she brought a unique and/or innovative perspective and was an original, fresh, and insightful angle presented on the story?

- Was the story relevant to the property industry?
- Is there strong evidence that in-depth accurate research was conducted?
- Does the story show strong use of engaging and descriptive writing and the ability to bring the subject matter to life, irrespective of its news value?
