PROPERTY NEWS JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR

This category recognises excellence in property journalism, with a focus on shorter, breaking stories. It celebrates journalists who demonstrate a deep understanding of the property sector, consistently delivering accurate, insightful, and engaging content that informs the public and contributes to industry discourse. Entries should highlight strong investigative work, impactful storytelling, and the ability to unpack complex property-related issues with clarity and relevance. Judges will be looking for pieces that not only respond to unfolding events but also shape the conversation around key developments in the property landscape.

Submissions will be assessed based on the following criteria:

- Was the article breaking news?
- Did the story indicate that the journalist had an extremely deep knowledge and understanding of the issue or subject matter?
- Was the article well researched?
- Did he/she consult a balanced range of credible sources?
- Are the facts in the story accurate and is this clear?
